

Michael Fraering

The Capture of General Neil Dow

July 18, 2024

Michael was born in New Orleans. He received in BA in history from Southeastern University. Michael started his career with The Louisiana State Parks and recently retired after over 30 years of service. He became the Head Curator of the Port Hudson State Historic Site and the Chief Weapons Officer for the State Parks.

Neil Dow was the general of the 13th Maine Volunteers during the American Civil War, taken prisoner and was interned at the Libby Prison in Richmond, Virginia, and at Mobile, Alabama, for several months.

Place: Drusilla Seafood, 3482 Drusilla Lane <http://drusillaplace.com/>

Meeting Time: 6:30pm Doors open, Meeting begins 7:00pm, End 8:30 to 9:00pm.

Meeting Cost: $35.00 includes tax, tip, food and fun.

Reservations: Please make a reservation (s) by Tuesday, October 17

Late Reservations: Welcomed and appreciated.

Contact: John Potts (225) 937-2782, or brewrt@att.net

Book Raffle: A selection of books or items. $1 per ticket or 6 tickets for $5.

Website - <http://www.brewrt.com>

Bring a friend